

New Jersey's Do Not Call Law has made our lives peaceful again without the annoying intrusions from companies and telemarketers. I consider these calls an invasion of my privacy and use of my private means of communicating (telephone) that I pay for to their gain not mine.